

Lecture Assignment 1

- What is COBIT 2019 framework at high-level?
- COBIT 2019 is framework for managing IT to help
 - organization's technologies actually supports business goals
 - and aligning IT with business strategy and delivering value
- Who is responsible for the body of knowledge of the COBIT 2019 framework?
 - for the official framework it's ISACA (Information Systems Audit and Control Association) but organization can implement it and consultant can teach and companies adapt it
- What is the use of the COBIT 2019 and where it is most used in practice?
 - it's used to align IT with business goals and manage risk and security or optimize resources; it's used mostly
 - in large organization like highly regulated industries
- Any other information you might find interesting about the framework?
 - it's from what i understood after researching it's
 - a framework that defines how IT should be governed and managed that also used for controlling and aligning IT with business strategies